Temporary Disclaimer

Hello and welcome new student.

Prior to you undertaking any training with us here at Keibudo Karate we are required by law to be covered against any claim for injuries of a sport related nature that may occur as a result from your training at any of the Keibudo sessions. Until such time when you become a fully licensed and insured member of Keibudo Karate Schools you will be required to complete this form in order to train with our organisation.

Please read carefully through this form and sign and return it to the Chief Instructor.

Please note: All new intro students receive a free 4 week membership and insurance package from the date of your first session courtesy of Nakmas National Governing Body, following that period full Membership Licence and Insurance must be purchased on a yearly basis with any of the Keibudo membership plans.

I, the undersigned, realise that there are potential hazards in any form of sport. In joining any training session with Keith Boardman's Keibudo Karate Schools I may be exposing myself to the possibility of sustaining a sports injury either through my own actions or through contact with others. I accept that my Instructors are not legally responsible for any accidents or injuries that may result from my training with Keibudo Karate.

I also understand that Keibudo Karate insurance is only valid upon acceptance of membership by Keith Boardman's Keibudo Karate Schools, which should be completed by the end of Four weeks from the date of my first training session. As such, and until I become a full member of Keibudo Karate,

I will be solely responsible for any accident to myself or accident caused by me whilst participating in any Keibudo Karate training session.

I acknowledge that failure to follow Mr Boardman's instructions may result in my being barred from Future training sessions and Keibudo Karate membership.
